Investors Bank Foundation Awards Grant to Support Emerging Artist at the Princeton Festival

PRINCETON, NJ (May 17, 2019) – The Princeton Festival (www.princetonfestival.org) recently received a $500 grant from Investors Foundation, established by Investors Bank, in support of an emerging artist who will perform in the Festival’s 15th Anniversary season, which runs from June 7 to June 30, 2019.

The grant will further the Festival’s mission of enriching the communities it serves through a multi-dimensional, world-class performing arts summer festival. This season the Festival will present nine different events in 22 performances, enhanced by 12 free public lectures, films, and workshops.

“We thank the Investors Bank Foundation for its support of a younger artist in our program,” said Richard Tang Yuk, the Festival’s Artistic and Executive Director. “This is an investment in the future of the performing arts in our area and beyond.”

Events during the 2019 season of the Festival include

- Two performances of Nixon in China, the ground-breaking opera by John Adams
- 13 performances of She Loves Me, the Tony-nominated musical by the creators of Fiddler on the Roof and Cabaret
- Chamber music performances on modern and Baroque instruments
- Jazz concert by Grammy-nominated vocalist Jazzmeia Horn
- Piano recital by the internationally acclaimed Rachel Cheung
